

News Release

Anderson Farm Museum Heritage Society ...Says Thanks to Alek Luopa- our Graphic Design Volunteer- And Best Wishes as He Starts University!

The Anderson Farm Museum Heritage Society (AFMHS), our 'Rock The Farm' Concerts/Farmers' Market Committee, Fall Fair Committee & Christmas Tree-Lighting Celebration Committee would like to express our thanks to Alek Luopa, for volunteering his time, talent and skills to help us design all of our AFMHS PR Materials for our three Annual FREE Community Events, at the Anderson Farm Museum (AFM). We really appreciate his dedicated and enthusiastic work on these three projects from March 2011 – August 2013. He has been one of our KEY Community Partners/Sponsors!

What a difference Alek has made for the AFMHS and the promotion of our three FREE Community Events at the Anderson Farm Museum!

Alek has continued to surprise and impress the members of the AFMHS, our volunteer committees, the Greater Sudbury Museums, Ward 2 Councilor Jacques Barbeau, City of Greater Sudbury Staff, our Community Partners (Performers, Art/Craft Vendors, Farmers, Agri-Producers, Community Groups, Service Clubs, Schools etc) and our Business, Corporate, and Media Sponsors – with his work ethic and the professional quality of his designs for all of our PR Materials for our three FREE annual events at the AFM.

"...What an impact Alek has had on our PR Materials since 2011!...Thanks to his professional quality Graphic Designs the AFMHS has been able to dramatically increase our Target Audience and Target Areas for our 'Rock The Farm' Concert/Farmers' Market series & Fall Fair- with hundreds more attending our summer series and thousands more coming to the fair...He has designed Posters, Flyers, Banners, Signs, Volunteer T-Shirts and our Fall Fair Site MAP/Programs...volunteered at our events- taking photos & videos- helping us provide public recognition of all our Sponsors/Community Partners, Volunteers & Participants...He has been amazing to work with!" Gwen Doyle, CIO AFMHS

Everyone involved with the AFMHS and our three FREE annual events at the AFM will miss Alek greatly– as he heads off to University this fall. We wish him all the best in his new adventures. We don't know what we will do without him!

-30-

Gwen Doyle
CIO AFMHS
692-3021
gwen.doyle@bell.net