NOAFEM Giant Pumpkin Contest at 8th Annual Fall Fair ...Prizes for Largest, Smallest, Oddest & Most Perfectly Shaped Pumpkins

NOAFEM [Northern Ontario Agri-Food Education & Marketing] will be hosting their annual Giant Pumpkin Contest as part of the 8th Annual Fall Fair, Sat. Sept. 13th at the Anderson Farm Museum, in Lively.

Prizes will be awarded for the Largest, Smallest, Oddest Shaped & Most Perfectly Shaped Pumpkins. $2 Entry FEE

Steve Smith, Director NOAFEM and Giant Pumpkin Grower Enthusiast is challenging everyone to try to grow a Giant Pumpkin larger than his.

And for children, if you can't grow a Giant Pumpkin, enter your smallest, oddest or most perfectly shaped pumpkin.

To find out more about the NOAFEM Giant Pumpkin Contest & the Fall Fair check out the Anderson Farm Museum Heritage Society page on Facebook.
